Numb. 7795.

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Saturday April 7. to Tuesday April 10. 1739.

Warsaw, March 28, N. S.

SEVERAL Letters from Podolia and Volhinia mention the late Defeat of the Tartars, and the Havock they have made in their Retreat thro' Poland. The Palatine of Russia is informed, that they have destroyed two Towns, 16 Villages, and carried off 8000 Inhabitants; but the Great General imputes their Incursion to nothing but Ignorance of the Country, assuring that the little Damage they have committed was before they knew that they were on the Territories of an Ally; and that they have since given the fairest Promises to release the Captives, and to repair all Devastations. Some of these Letters mention the Plague's being broke out again in two Villages near Kaminieck. Their Polish Majesties intend to set out for Saxony about the 6th of next Month.

Vienna, April 4, N. S. The Grand Master of Malta has offered to furnish the Complements of Men for two Imperial Ships upon the Danube, by sending 150 Men and seven Knights for each Ship. Marshal Wallis set out on the 2d Instant in the Morning for the Army.

Copenhagen, April 4, N. S. Preparations are making at Hirscholm for the Reception of the Royal Family, who are to remove thither as soon as the warm Season comes on. The Margrave, Stadholder of Sleswick, is expected at Court this Spring.

Copenhagen, April 7, N. S. The King of Denmark having been let Blood Yesterday, there was no Council nor Court at Fredericksberg; but those Colleges who received his Majesty's Orders, in the Afternoon waited upon him, and were dispatched as usual.

Bank, 14 December, 1738.

Upon a Representation from His Majesty's Post-master-General, That it is apprehended that the Expectation of finding Bank Bills in the Letters, gives Encouragement to the frequent Robbery of the Mails; The Bank of England, to contribute what in them lies to put a Stop thereto, and to render their Bills of no Significancy or Value to those who are guilty of such flagitious Practices, do declare, That for the Benefit and Security of those who have Occasion to transact Money Affairs in the Country, they will from and after the First Day of January next (instead of Three Days Sight Bills) give to such as desire the same, their Bills payable at Seven Days after Sight to ——— or Order, whereby in Case of a Robbery, the Proprietors will have Time to give Notice thereof; and if the Indorsements are duly filled up, as they expect they should, they can be of no Use or Service but to the right Owners,

And whereas they may fall into those Hands who may be ignorant of the Form of indorsing them, a Blank Indorsement will be printed on the Back for the Parties to fill up, and to be repeated as often as Occasion requires.

Navy Office, April 9, 1739.
